

K-8 Community Based Afterschool Strategy Meeting
February 11th, 2015, 10:00am – 12:00pm
Latino/Hispanic Room, Main Branch, SF Public Library

Objectives:

- o Grantees will learn how to use tools available to do continuous quality improvement , including data that DCYF provides and the Quality Self-Assessment Tool
- o Grantees will learn best practices for using data and the QSA from peer organizations
- o Grantees will create an action plan for working on program quality improvement internally

10:00 Introduction Sally Jenkins-Stevens, DCYF

- Introductions of staff, Review of past meeting objectives (August - Recruiting and working with volunteers; October – Youth Leadership and Voice), and review of today’s agenda and meeting objectives

10:05 Build the Best Tower DCYF Staff

- In small groups, you will work together with materials given to you to build the best tower possible. After 5 minutes of working, you will bring your tower to the front of the room to be judged DCYF staff

10:20 Aim High Presentation Alexis Bayley

- Alexis Bayley, the Organizational Learning Specialist at Aim High, will present about how Aim High has done data driven goal setting
- There will be time for questions for Alexis, and small group discussion afterward.

10:45 DCYF Data Sally and Deedra Jackson, DCYF

- Overview of data available from DCYF, some trends in youth survey data for the entire funding strategy, and a chance to look at your program’s individual survey data

11:05 Tel-Hi’s Afterschool Academy Tony Tyson and Jeffrey Ng

- Tony and Jeffery will present about how they have used the ELC QSA with staff, motivations for doing it and program outcomes
- There will be time for questions and small group discussion

11:30 Action Planning Debbie Tisdale, DCYF

- Time to start an action plan to explore using either the QSA or data to engage in program quality improvement in your program

11:50 Announcements and evaluation Sally